

Aphasia Re-Connect

Invitation to a The Bromley Group

Are conversations difficult? Do you have aphasia?

- Come & meet others with aphasia
- Enjoy a tea & coffee
- Relax and be yourself-you don't have to talk
- Support is offered by volunteers without communication disabilities
- Have fun
- Family and friends are welcome

Where: Bromley United Reformed Church

20 Widmore Road and Glades Place Bromley
Kent, BR1 1RY

When: Every first and third Tuesday of the month:

Time: 10.30 to 12.00 pm

Contact: Sally McVicker, 07885 288943.

sally@aphasiareconnect.org

Where to find us:

Directions to the Bromley United Reformed Church

Rail:

Bromley North and Bromley South stations

Buses:

Lots of buses stop outside venue or close by

Car:

Forecourt for drop-offs/ pick-ups.

A small car park at venue and entrance to the Intu

Car Park in Glades Place. Accessible entrance at the back.